

Silent No More

©bj turbett 2009

I am waiting
You whisper a name
You hear me calling
Is it tears or is it rain?
Say it didn't matter
Didn't mean a thing
Just a woman choosing
For there to be no pain

But baby if I knew back then
What I know now
I wouldn't make the same mistake
And anyhow,
You know I really still love you
You are the brightest blue in my life.....
Above my winter sky.....
The sun shines in my life
Through loving you

The time has gone
But never really passed
Shadows are long
You know
Regret just doesn't rest
But I will be silent no more
When things that must be said
I'm asking for your healing Lord
To save me from this dread

Cos baby if I knew back then
What I know now
I wouldn't make the same mistake
And anyhow,
You know I really still love you
You are the brightest blue in my life
The sun shines in my life
Through loving you.....
The sun came back in my life
Through.... loving you.
